

Many thanks to the Seaton Ross Playing Fields Association for organising a splendid Bonfire Night.

Seaton Ross Feast

Seaton Ross Playing Fields Association would like to thank everyone who kindly donated 'Spin and Win' prizes and all the people who supported us on the day. As a result of your generosity we raised approximately £400 which will go towards the maintenance and replacement of equipment at the Playing Fields.

Shed Seven Guitar Raffle

Thanks to the generosity of Paul Banks, the Seaton Ross Playing Fields Association has an electric guitar (and amp), signed by all members of the local band Shed Seven, available as a raffle prize to raise funds for the Playing Fields. The winner was Mr. Spicer.

The next feast meeting is Monday 10th January 2011. Everybody welcome!

REMEMBER: - the Annual Village Walk, which will leave the Village Hall at 1.30pm on New Year's Day, everybody's welcome! Come along, walk off the Christmas pudding meet other village people and explore the village footpaths!
